Recovery after stroke: present and future perspective

05.03.2024

Prof. Nick Ward

AULA MAGNA - Palazzina di Neuroscienze
Ore 17.30 – 18.30 seminario

<https://unipd.zoom.us/j/88959319767>

Nick Ward trained in neurology at The National Hospital for Neurology and Neurosurgery, Queen Square and The Royal London Hospital.

In 1999 he was awarded the first Clinical Fellowship in Stroke Medicine. He joined Professor Richard Frackowiak at the Wellcome Trust Centre for Neuroimaging (WTCN), UCL, as clinical research fellow and used fMRI to study motor recovery after stroke.

In 2003 he was awarded a Clinical Fellowship to investigate the relationship between post-stroke brain function and motor impairment after stroke.

He was promoted to Reader in Clinical Neurology in 2011, and to Professor of Clinical Neurology and Neurorehabilitation in the Department of Clinical and Motor Neuroscience at UCL in 2017.

He is Deputy Editor at JNNP, co-editor of the Oxford Textbook of Neurorehabilitation and was recently elected Chair of the Scientific Committee of the International Stroke Recovery and Rehabilitation Alliance.
